

Ernest Tsang

Objective

Junior Full Stack Developer focused on smooth, productive and secure deployment of applications. Eager to utilize my trained technical skills in software development and combined it with my diverse professional experiences to create, build and deliver solutions.

Development Experience Projects

June 2017 <https://github.com/Wishing-Well>

Wellit App (crowdfunding app on a local level)

- Wellitapp was a 2-week group project showcasing the full stack development we learned throughout DevLeague. It was created using JavaScript, React Native with Redux as the framework, and PostgreSQL for the database.
- I contributed to this app by coming up with the idea for this app and the initial app wireframe. My main role in the group was in DevOps, mainly launching the backend online.

May 2017 <https://github.com/kwaimuk/React-Kanban>

Kanban board using React

- This project was creating a to-do list that allows status updates using React.
- Incorporated various form inputs without the use of additional web packs.
